

CALUMET
BAKING POWDER

The wonder of baking powders—Calumet. Wonderful in its raising powers—its uniformity, its never failing results, its purity.

Wonderful in its economy. It costs less than the high-price trust brands, but it is worth as much. It costs a trifle more than the cheap and big can kinds—it is worth more. But proves its real economy in the baking.

Use CALUMET—the Modern Baking Powder.
At all Grocers.

ISAC WILKES

Trotting and Pacing Stallion

Is the Sire of Lofts' colt and the Lee colt trained by Bob Graham. With only 3 weeks training at Kalamazoo he stepped his miles better than 2:30 and the prominent trainer Peter V. Johnson says Isaac Wilkes is one of the nicest gaited horses he never handled. He is a Naples and Its Lottery.

All the hopes and dreams, almost the life itself, of the masses in Naples center in the national lottery system, with its weekly drawing of prizes. In Naples everyone plays the "lotto," and each week sees the upbuilding of the hopes and dreams of thousands, only to culminate at the Saturday drawing in a vast, widespread disappointment. But with the return of Monday the Neapolitan has taken heart again, his visions of fortune again take form, to be realized—surely this time—at the next Saturday drawing—Harper's.

All Bowel Trouble

Is relieved almost instantly by using Dr. Bell's Anti-Pain. It destroys disease germs and stops inflammation. Keep a bottle in the house. Sold everywhere. m

A Misunderstood Genius.

Mischa Elman, the boy violinist, told on his last visit to New York a story of his early childhood.
"When I was very small indeed," he said, "I played at a reception at a Russian prince's, and, for an urchin of seven, I flatter myself I rattled off Beethoven's 'Kreutzer Sonata' finely. This sonata, you know, has in it several long and impressive rests. Well, in one of these rests a motherly old lady leaned forward, patted my shoulder, and said:
"Play something you know, dear!"

Not a Glass Child.

They were having a glass of beer on the pavilion when all at once on the walk below there was the sound of crashing glass. They looked and saw that a child of about eight months had fallen prone upon the pavement face down. His mother ran to pick him up.

"He's a glass child," lamented the woman who was drinking the beer, "and he broke himself when he fell."
"No," said the man, and looking again, she found that he was right. It was not the child that was broken, but a large bottle of milk which he had held clasped to his bosom when he fell face down.

A Thrifty Plan.

Some men can take one drink and stop; they don't care to buy in return.
